August 11, 2023

Dear 9th Episcopal District Family,

Greetings in the matchless name of Jesus the Christ!

It is with deep gratitude, tinged with a measure of sadness, that I approach this 8th series of Annual Conferences with the knowledge that this will be the final time for me to have this experience in the 9th District. From meeting each of you face-to-face for the first time to meeting in virtual settings to returning to in-person worship, God blessed us. As we embark on this 8th series of meetings, I look forward to seeing your smiling faces again!

This year's Annual Conferences' theme "A Call for Prophetic Visions" is based in Micah 6: 8— "He has shown you, O mortal, what is good. And what does the LORD require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God" (NIV). Although the global pandemic ended, because of what appears to be a lack of decency and civility in our society, our work as servants in God's Kingdom is more crucial than ever. God always shows us what is right, and more importantly, what is expected of those who call him, "Lord". When it comes to ministering to and leading God's people effectively, the mandate takes on more power. As we journey through the 2023 Annual Conferences, I pray that pastors and parishioners will be inspired by a new and fresh anointing that prepares churches to accept the challenge of being the prophets God calls us to be.

Thank you for the love you have shown to Rev. Sherita and our family during my tenure. The State of Alabama is a wonderful blessing to The Seawrights; I pray you share similar sentiments for what our presence means to you. In seeking to finish strongly, may God's inspiration help each of you fulfill the Lord's mission. Let us meet each day with anticipation of being used as instruments of God's divine will!

Because of Christ, I am,

Bishop Harry L. Seawright, Presiding Prelate

The Legacy of the AME Church in the State of Alabama

Alabama River Region Annual Conference

Historical Reflections of the Alabama River Region Conference

By Presiding Elder Jacquelyn L. Denson

In 1830, slaves in Selma, Alabama attended the First Methodist Episcopal Church, today known as Church Street Methodist Church, with their white slave masters. After the Union won the Civil War and President Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation, the black parishioners, moved to the basement of a building on Broad Street in 1866. That basement later became the Colored A.M.E. Church of South Selma, which later became The Albert Hotel. The church's emphasis was on preaching the Gospel, Sunday School, and Mission. The Colored A. M. E Church of Selma was admitted to the African Methodist Episcopal Church in 1867.

In May 1868, Bishop John Mifflin Brown, an ordained Itinerant Elder in the African Methodist Episcopal Church, and a key activist in the Underground Railroad, was elected and consecrated the 11th Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. He was assigned to serve a district that was composed of South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, and Alabama. Bishop Brown organized and held the first Alabama Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church on July 25, 1868, at the Colored A.M. E. Church in Selma, Alabama. The Alabama Conference is historically recorded by the A.M.E. Church, as the first conference established in the great state of Alabama. Later, the Colored A. M. E. Church was named Brown Chapel in honor of Bishop John Mifflin Brown.

Due to the redistricting of the 9th Episcopal District in 2009, The Alabama Conference, also referred to as the “Old Alabama Conference”, became the Alabama River Region Conference. The Montgomery Selma District is the only Presiding Elder's District assigned to the Alabama River Region Conference, formerly known as the "Alabama Conference". We are the proud Presiding Elder's District to Historic Brown Chapel AME Church (site of the “Bloody Sunday” March), Selma, AL, St. Paul AME Church (home church of Mother Rosa Parks), Montgomery, AL, St. John's AME Church, downtown Montgomery, AL, St. John's AME Church (Capitol Hill), Montgomery, AL, Campbell Chapel AME Church (home church of Bishop Frank C. Cummings), Minter, AL and twenty-two other outstanding churches. The Alabama River Region Conference, formally known as the Alabama Conference, is called the “Mother Conference”. Brown Chapel is affectionately called the “Mother Church” and the “Citadel of African Methodism” in the State of Alabama.

Many bishops, presiding elders, pastors, and laity have served the conference and the church well. Bishops serving the redistricted Alabama Region Conferences are Bishop James L. Davis and our present Bishop Harry L. Seawright. All Presiding Elders of the Old Alabama Conference made significant contributions with two in particular, Presiding Elder Ananias Perry, Jr. and Presiding Elder Leo Brock, Sr. The Presiding Elders who have served the Alabama River Region are the Revs. Albert L. H. Hyche, James E. Arnell, and Rev. Dr. Farrell J. Duncombe. The present Presiding Elder, the first female to serve in the total history of the conference, is the Rev. Dr. Jacquelyn L. Denson.

As we celebrate the 14th Session of the Alabama River Region Annual Conference, we Commemorate the 155 years and one month, to the date, of the establishment of the Alabama Conference. To God be the Glory!

Northwest Alabama Annual Conference North Alabama Conference-West Alabama Conference

The North Alabama Conference was organized December 11, 1878 at Florence, Alabama, in the courthouse, with Bishop Jabez Pitt Campbell presiding. Bishop led hymn #249, "Let Zion's Watchmen All Awake and Take the Alarm They Give." The scripture lesson was Joel 2nd chapter, after which the Rev. Charles L. Harris was elected secretary. On December 5, 1898, the North Alabama Annual Conference met at St. John, Huntsville, with Bishop Henry McNeal Turner presiding. At that time, the following Presiding Elder Districts were in operation: Birmingham District -Presiding Elder W. H. Mixon; Florence District-Presiding Elder N. L. Edmonson; Blocton District-Presiding Elder A. W. Atwater ; Montevallo District-Presiding Elder W. W. Warren; Anniston District-Presiding Elder P. G. Simmons; Jasper District-Presiding Elder S. L. Covington. Were the North Alabama Conference still in effect, this would mark the 143rd year of it's existence.

In 1922, Bishop William A. Fountain was assigned to the Ninth Episcopal District. The West Alabama Conference was first organized in that year in Centreville, Alabama, at Mount Sanai AME Church. In 1924, the West Alabama Conference re-organized in Greensboro, Alabama at Saint Matthew AME Church. Rev. A. L. Tooson served as the secretary at this Annual Conference. Bishop Fountain elevated to Presiding Elder Dr. General Randall Polk and commissioned him to build the West Alabama Conference. Were the West Conference still in effect today it would be in it's 101st year of existence.

In 2008, the Conference Boundaries Committee was formed consisting of eight persons from each Presiding Elder District to study realignment of the Annual Conferences in the state of Alabama. New boundaries were redrawn using municipal hub centers and county lines. In 2009, the North Alabama Conference and the West Alabama Conference met in joint session at the Sheraton Hotel, Birmingham, Alabama, with Bishop James Levert Davis presiding. During this joint meeting, the Conference Boundaries Committee gave its report. Rev. F. D. Parker presented the North Conference resolution on the Northwest Conference boundaries. The motion to adopt was made by Rev. Joseph A. Hall and seconded by Rev. J. Arthur Rumph. The motion was carried by the North Conference. The resolution from the West Conference on the new Northwest Conference boundaries was presented by Mrs. Betty West. The motion to adopt the resolution was made by Rev. R. J. Rumley and seconded by Presiding Elder Myers Hawkins. The motion was carried and the Northwest Alabama Conference, consisting of three Presiding Elders districts was born. The three Presiding Elders appointed were: Rev. Dwight E. Dillard, Birmingham-Florence-Tuscaloosa District; Rev. Oliver Allen, South Birmingham-Huntsville-Bessemer District; Rev. Willis N. Huggins, West Birmingham-Ensley-Greensboro District.

The Northwest Conference is composed of sixty-eight (68) churches in the following counties: Jefferson, Morgan, Lauderdale, Colbert, Walker, Tuscaloosa, Madison, Jackson, Etowah, Marshall, Calhoun, and Hale. Gaines Chapel, Anniston and Oak Grove, Newell were added from the old East Alabama Conference. Other Presiding Elders who have or are now serving in the Northwest Alabama Conference are: Rev. Willis N. Huggins, Sr., West Birmingham-Ensley-Greensboro District; Rev. Cleophas A. Guice, West Birmingham-Ensley-Greensboro District; Rev. Albert Lee Hezekiah Hyche, South Birmingham-Huntsville-Bessemer District; Rev. Dwight E. Dillard, Birmingham-Florence-Tuscaloosa District; Rev. Bruce W. Hunter, South Birmingham-Huntsville-Bessemer District; and Rev. Gloria A. Hall, West Birmingham-Ensley-Greensboro District.

Southeast Alabama Annual Conference
South Conference

The South Alabama Annual Conference was established in 1914. In 2009, Bishop James Levert Davis presided over the South Alabama Annual Conference, as the name was changed to the Southeast Alabama Conference. The Southeast Alabama Conference includes the following two districts: Dothan-Eufaula District and the Ozark-Troy District.

The South Alabama Conference was organized in Enterprise, AL at Johns Chapel A.M.E.C in 1914. Bishop Joshua H. Jones was the Presiding Prelate. Reverend W. M. Pyles was the Host Pastor. Rev. Ingraham was the first Secretary of the conference. Many of the churches in the South Alabama Conference were built in the late 1800s, by former slaves. Zions, such as Cherry Street Dothan, Johns Chapel Enterprise, Mt. Moriah Sconiersville, Mt. Zion Eufaula, New Zion Enterprise, St. Luke Eufaula, St. Paul Brundidge, St. Paul Troy; just to name a few.

These churches were simply known as the colored Methodist church in their inception and were the foundation of many African American's success. The boundary lines in the conference were also changed to include and to exclude a number of churches into the revised Southeast Alabama Conference.

The Dothan-Eufaula District is located in Southeast Alabama and is comprised of five counties and ten cities. There are 23 churches on the Dothan-Eufaula District with a reported membership of 1,792. The Dothan-Eufaula District was part of the Old "Solid" South Alabama Annual Conference which was reorganized under the leadership of Bishop T. Larry Kirkland in the year of 2002. Prior to 2002 the "Solid" South Alabama Annual Conference was the only Conference in the State of Alabama that had three districts (Ozark, Dothan-Eufaula and Troy). When Bishop Kirkland directed the reorganization it was decided and adopted by the "Solid" South Alabama Annual Conference that our annual conference would become two districts (Ozark-Troy and Dothan-Eufaula).

The Dothan-Eufaula District remained and other churches were assigned from the Ozark and Troy Districts to the Dothan-Eufaula District in the merger. In the year 2010, under the leadership of Bishop James Levert Davis, the boundaries of the "Solid" South Alabama Annual Conference were revisited and it was adopted and passed by the "Solid" South Alabama Annual Conference and ratified by the General Conference in 2012. This is when the "Solid" Southeast Alabama Annual Conference was born.

Presiding Elders who have served the Dothan-Eufaula District are: Reverends E.C. Hatcher; S. D. Hamilton; R. R. Rhodes; R.A Daily; J.C. Jarrett, served 10 years; G.W. Shaw, served 31 years; J. D. Sanders, served 8 years; David E. Reddick, served 18 years; Frederick D. Sherrod III, is presently serving.

The Ozark-Troy District of the South Alabama Conference was organized in 2002 under the leadership of Bishop T. Larry Kirkland. It is a product of the majority of the Troy District merging with the Ozark District, while a small few churches merged into the Dothan Eufaula District. Therefore, the three districts: Ozark District, Troy District and Dothan Eufaula District were merged into two districts. Presiding Elders who have served the Troy District are: Reverends H.W. Pouncey; Randolph Grubbs; J.D. Sanders; Jerome Harris; David E. Reddick.

Presiding Elders who have served the Ozark District are: Reverends J.C. Jarrett; J.F. McCloud. Presiding Elders who have served the Ozark Troy District are: Reverends J.F. McCloud; Willis Huggins; Samuel Smith; Cleophus Guice; Andrew Holtz; Johnny Rutledge; with Dr. Willie Eugene Marshall presently serving.

Northeast Alabama Annual Conference East Conference

Welcome to the 14th Session of the Northeast Alabama Annual Conference, which was established in 2009, under the servant leadership of Bishop James Levert Davis. Currently, this Conference comprises the Phenix City and Tuskegee Districts, with 20-22 churches in each district. Churches across this Conference are located in Chambers, Russell, Lee, Macon, Bullock and wee bit of Barbour Counties.

However, in its prior iteration the Northeast Alabama Annual Conference was known as the East Alabama Conference, comprising four Districts; namely, the Union Springs, Montevallo, Anniston, and Opelika Districts. The old East Alabama Conference was organized in 1904, when Bishop Levi J. Coppin was assigned to preside over the old Seventh Episcopal District (Alabama and South Carolina) At its height, this Conference included approximately 121 Churches, many of which were established in the late 1800s and early 1900s. Among the first of these was St. Luke AME in Opelika, AL, which was formally organized in 1873; having met since the late 1860s under a brush arbor. St. Luke was brought into the AME Connection in 1880, by Bishop Henry McNeal Turner. The first session of the East Alabama Conference was held at Wayman Chapel, Union Springs, AL.

In 1980, the East Alabama Conference was reorganized, with the four districts collapsing into three: Montevallo, Anniston, Opelika and Union Springs Districts. In 1983, the three districts collapsed into two, namely the Phenix City and Tuskegee Districts. With the reorganizing yet again in 2009, Bullock County Churches merged with those in Chambers, Lee, Macon and the Hurtsboro Churches of Russell County to become the new Tuskegee District, with the remainder of the Russell County Churches comprising the new Phenix City District of the new Northeast Alabama Annual Conference.

Some notable stalwarts of the AME Church serving as Presiding Elders of the old East Alabama Conference were Elders Holmes, Walker, Fortson, Harris, Boddie, Newman, Treadwell, and Neal. At the time of the 2009 reorganization and shortly thereafter, Elders Joseph Hall and Ralph Neal served the Phenix City and Tuskegee Districts, respectively. Their immediate successors were Elders Samuel Smith (Phenix City) and Thomas Crossley (Tuskegee). As of this writing, Elder Johnny Rutledge serves the Phenix City District, and Elder Letitia Watford serves the Tuskegee District.

While the year 2023 marks the 14th session of the NE Alabama Annual Conference, it in fact marks the 119th session of what in essence was a major portion of the old East Alabama Annual Conference.

Southwest Alabama Annual Conference
Central Alabama Conference

The Southwest Alabama Conference, which evolved from what was formerly the Central Alabama Conference, was originally organized in 1892, in Demopolis, Alabama due to the growth of African Methodism in the state. The first conference was comprised of seven Presiding Elders' Districts: Selma, Mobile, Camden, Greensborough, Demopolis, Thomasville and Greenville. The Right Reverend Abraham Grant was assigned to preside over the district. Were the Central Alabama Conference still in effect today, this would represent the 130th session.

The Presiding Elders were assigned as follows: Selma District – Rev. F. B. Moreland; Mobile District – Rev. D. Brown; Greensborough District – Rev. R. D. Brooks; Camden District – Rev. L. Gardner; Demopolis District – Rev. E. L. Martin; Thomasville District – Rev. G. W. Watson; Greenville District – Rev. J. H. McGhee

Early history of Annual Conferences is as follows: The second session of the Central Alabama Conference was held at Emanuel African Methodist Church, Mobile, AL on November 22 to November 26, 1893. The Third session was held at Quinn Chapel in Uniontown, Alabama on November 28- to December 1, 1894. The fourth session was held in Selma, Alabama on December 4 to December 8, 1895. The fifth session was held in Greensborough, Alabama on November 18 to November 22, 1896. The Right Reverend H. M. Turner presided over the district. The sixth session was held in Mobile, Alabama at Bethel in December 1897. In 1898, the Central Alabama Conference assembled in Marion, Alabama. The eighth session was held in 1899 in Selma, Alabama. The ninth session was convened at Emanuel in Mobile, Alabama on November 7 to November 13, 1900. The tenth session was held in Demopolis, Alabama on November 14 to November 18, 1901. The Right Rev. W. J. Gaines was the presiding bishop.

Other Presiding Elders who have served in the Selma, Camden, and Mobile districts were: The Reverends Allison Walker, M. H. Leath, R. H. Manuel, M. F. Nichols, L. G. Duncan, L. V. Starkey, C. L. Wright, A. E. Williams, J.T. L. Dandridge, B. F. Howze, A.R. Ray, W. E. LeSuer, James Jackson, H.O. Swanson, E. A. Rouse, Johnnie Bryant, Dr. Jacqueline Denson, and presently, the Rev. Charles A. Lewis, Mobile District and the Rev. Antonio Thomas, Camden District.

In 2009, during the Episcopal District's Planning Meeting, a resolution was approved for conference boundary restructuring in conference accordance with the mandate of the General Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church to redraw conference boundaries. The Right Rev. James L. Davis was the Presiding Bishop. The Central Alabama Conference became the Southwest Alabama Conference. All churches, charges, stations, and circuits whose physical address was located in the respective counties of Washington, Escambia, Wilcox, Clark, Monroe, Marengo, Baldwin, Mobile, Choctaw, and Conecuh were aligned with the new conference. Presently, the Southwest Alabama Conference is comprised of two districts – the Mobile District (18 churches) and the Camden District (31 churches). The Rt. Rev. Harry L. Seawright is the Presiding Bishop.
